

bypass injector

in gas chromatography

A sample injector by means of which the eluent (carrier gas) may be temporarily diverted through a sample chamber so that the sample is carried to the column.

Source:

Orange Book, p. 99