

charge-permutation reaction

A general term to describe an ion/neutral species reaction where there is a change in the magnitude and/or sign of the charges of the reactant.

Source:

PAC, 1991, 63, 1541 (Recommendations for nomenclature and symbolism for mass spectroscopy (including an appendix of terms used in vacuum technology)). (Recommendations 1991) on page 1555