

desiccant

1. Drying agent.
2. In agriculture, a substance used for drying up plants and facilitating their mechanical harvesting.

Source:

PAC, 1993, 65, 2003 (Glossary for chemists of terms used in toxicology (IUPAC Recommendations 1993)) on page 2037