

stereosequence

in a polymer

A configurational sequence in which the relative or absolute configuration is defined at all sites of stereoisomerism in the main chain of a polymer molecule.

Source:

Purple Book, p. 36